2025 Alumni Picnic

The picnic was a great success with 130 Alumni and guests. We had a few folks that this was their first event attended and I hope they had a great time and we'll see them again.. The Alumni BOD wants to thank everyone for attending and supporting the group. Hopefully you all had a great time and enjoyed the food and catching up with old friends and co-workers. Thanks to John and Tracy Wellner, Jeff Facer, Rodger Engebretson, and Kimberly Marangoni for their support to make the event a success. Thanks to Jon Marangoni for the great photos to share on the Alumni website. Hope you all enjoyed lunch and the marathon social session. If the great time had by all could be registered by the decibel level....I think we hit the target.

The Lion and the Mouse

Once when a lion, the king of the jungle, was asleep, a little mouse began running up and down on him. This soon awakened the lion, who placed his huge paw on the mouse, and opened his big jaws to swallow him.

“Pardon, O King!” cried the little mouse. “Forgive me this time. I shall never repeat it and I shall never forget your kindness. And who knows, I may be able to do you a good turn one of these day!”

The lion was so tickled by the idea of the mouse being able to help him, that he lifted his paw and let him go.

Sometime later, a few hunters captured the lion, and tied him to a tree. After that they went in search of a wagon, to take him to the zoon.

Just then th little mouse happened to pass by. On seeing the lion’s plight, he ran up to him gnawed away at the ropes that bound him, the king of the jungle.

“Was I not right?” said the little mouse, very happy to help the lion.

MORAL: Small acts of kindness will be rewarded greatly.

Requesting submittal of stories for Alumni Scholarship Recipients for Successes/Journeys and Alumni Stories of Hobbies/Travel Adventures/Volunteering in Retirement

Please submit your stories/photos about scholarship recipients or retirement adventures to mrcmtzalumni22 @gmail.com.

We would love to share these stories from Alumni scholarship sponsors of their children, grandchildren or greatgrandchildren that received a scholarship from the MRC Alumni/EAA or MRC and where their journeys have taken them.

Also would love to hear what Alumni retirees are doing in their spare time. Share your hobbies, volunteer efforts or great travel adventures.

DONATE USED EYEGLASSES and HEARING AIDS

The Alumni will collect used eyeglasses and hearing aids for The Lions Club at events and at the Museum. The collection box is available on Tuesdays and Thursday mornings from 9:00 am to noon at the Museum. Through your kindness we can help to offer the gift of sight or sound to those in need. Marj Leeds will pick up the donated items for The Lions Club.

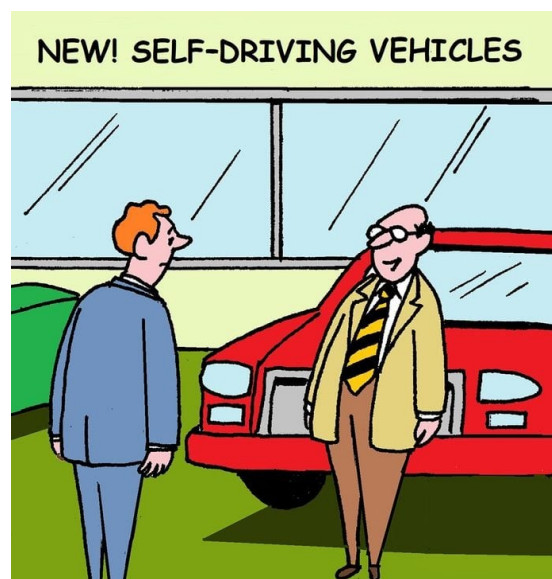

HUMOR CORNER

An elderly gentleman had serious hearing problems for a number of years. He went to the doctor and the doctor was able to have him fitted for a set of hearing aids that allowed the gentleman to hear 100%.

The elderly gentleman went back in a month to the doctor and the doctor said, 'Your hearing is perfect. Your family must be really pleased that you can hear again.'

The gentleman replied, 'Oh, I haven't told my family yet.

I just sit around and listen to the conversations. I've changed my will three times!'

"And, if you fall behind on payments, it

An elderly couple had dinner at another couple's house, and after eating, the wives left the table and went into the kitchen.

The two gentlemen were talking, and one said, 'Last night we went out to a new restaurant and it was really great. I would recommend it very highly.'

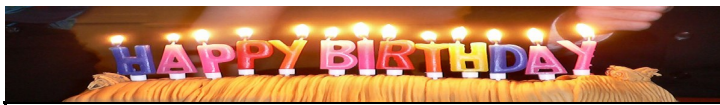

The other man said, 'What is the name of the restaurant?'

The first man thought and thought and finally said, 'What is the name of that flower you give to someone you love?'

You know... The one that's red and has thorns.'

'Do you mean a rose?'

'Yes, that's the one,' replied the man. He then turned towards the kitchen and yelled, 'Rose, what's the name of that restaurant we went to last night?'
